DOUBT IN WASHINGTON. Reluctance, Rather, to Accept the News-Another Threatened Scourge.

[Bytelegraph to the Dispatch.]

Washington, D. C., September 14.—There was no official report received at the Treasury concerning the deaths from cholera in New York city, and the officials were very reluctant to give credence to the press dispatches announcing the fact. They reason that confirmation means a serious interruption of the trade relations of the entire country.

To make the situation even more grave, there came an official report from the Marine-Hospital Service that the ship May had arrived at New Orleans with four cases of that other dread scourge, yellow-fever, aboard. [Bytelegraph to the Disputch.]

Norfolk Against New York. Norfolk Against New York.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

Nonrolk, Va., September 14.—The medical quarantine officer of the district, Dr.

W. A. Thom, and his deputies and a number of the physicians of the city were in a long consultation to-night regarding the cholera situation, and decided to recommend the health authorities to quarantine against New York if the conditions grow worse.

Worse, Nonrolk, Va., September 14.—Quaran-tine-Medical-Officer Thon's order quaran-tining this city against New York has been issued and goes into effect to-morrow.

LONDON, September 14.—The steamer Holderness, from Copstact, has arrived at Hull and reports that two of her crew, sailors, have died with Assatic cholera.

The Times is printing a series of letters on cholera, written by well-known physicians, who are making tours of the cholera-infected and other places in Russia and Garroany.

BERLIN AUTHORITIES PRAISED. The letter from Berlin warmly praises the authorities of that city, and says it is due entirely to their prompt action that cholera is totally absent from that municipality. The highest figures of the epidemic in Hamburg show that daily one person in 1,000 of the population is affected. AMONG WORKING PROFILE ONLY.

state Elections in Maine, Vermont, and Arkansas-Distinct Republican Disaster-Encouragement for Democrats,

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.) New York, September 14.-The Democratic National Committee has issued the following address:

To the People of the United States : "The Democratic National Committee congratulates you upon the result of the recent State elections in Maine, Verment, and Arkansas. In Arkansas the combined opposition, after so many extravagant claims, fell short by over 30,000 of the vote of the Democracy alone. This has brought dismay to the combination in the and its manipulators in the North. In Maine and Vermont the contest was conducted distinctly on national issues. The Republican managers appealed for votes in these States on the ground that the size of the pluralities would exert great moral influence on the campaign in other States and that the poll would be 'practically our vote for President.' Similar appeals summoned to their aid all the potent resources of their national organization with its exhaustless treasury and its splendid equipment of orators of national fame. With every favoring force at their command except public opinion; with no organizations opposed save those made up within the States by a minority party which has been out of power for a generation, and which was unaided from without, the campaign of our the strong tendency of public sentiment is with the Democracy, and that the peo-

Pederal-Secretary-of-State Foster says that the dispatch of naval vessels to Venezuela was not in any way influenced by the boundary question between Venezuela and Great Britain, nor is it known at the State Department in Washington that that question has recently assumed any new phase. There are important commercial and other interests at various Venezuelan ports which, in the state of anarchy prevailing in that country, it is not possible to protect with a single man-of-war, and so it was thought desirable that a force sufficient for the purpose should be sent. The presence of our naval vessels in those waters is not intended as a menace to any nation.

Uproarious Proceedings-Werts Nominated for Governor-Massachusetts Republican Nominations.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.) THENTON, N. J., September 14.—The New Jersey Democratic State Convention met to-day. The liveliest interest was taken in the proceedings, which were wild and disorderly. The partisans of Edward F. Young, of Jersey City, and State-Senator Werts struggled for advantage, the latter naming the temporary chairman, but Young's supporters carrying the permanent organization by electing Congressman Mc-Donald, of Hudson, permanent chairman. ENDORSEMENT OF CLEVELAND.

After much confusion resolutions were adopted endorsing Cleveland and Stevenson and approving Governor Abbett's administration. The resolutions then defend the various acts of the State administration. The fight over the Passaio-county delegates resulted in favor of the Werts delegates by 427 to 392 votes. The result was cheered and anseed. THE FUN BEGINS.

The fun begins.

The roll was called for nominations for Governor. Camden asked that ex-Senator Winfield, of Hudson, be allowed to speak for Camden. It was known that he favored Werts and a big row occurred. Hudson howle i itself hoarse in opposition, declaring that Winfield had no rights, not being a delegate. Camden withdrew Winfield and Judge Garrow nominated Werts. Judge Daly, of Hudson, followed with a nominating speech for Young.

PROCEEDINGS RECOME VOCHEROUS.

Winfield, who is now prosecutor of Hudson county, was again called on to second Werts, and producing credentials as an alternate was allowed to speak over Hudson county's opposition. While speaking some one from Hudson county shouted: "Are you trying to keep your job, Charlie?" to which, like lightning, he retorted: "I did not know there were so many from Hudson county out of jail." The scene that followed beggars description. Hudson rose on masse and shrieked that it was insulted, and would hear the orator no more. HOOTS AND CHEERS, Order was restored, however, and subsequently Corporation-Counsel Edwards, of Jersey City, replied in a bitter speech, referring to Winfield as the recreant son of Rudson. Edwards was so hooted that his speech could not be followed. It was broken with cheers for Werts time and again. He tried to rend Werts's letters declining to be a candidate, but the jers from all over the theatre smothered his voice.

Latham. and Mr. Woodard, the candidate for Congress in the Second Congressional District. These gentlemen were taken to Woodington in a carriage drawn by four horses and escorted by a large cavalcade of horsemen, buggies, and wagons. On their arrival they were greeted by 3,000 people. The three first-named gentlemen spoke, and were cheered from beginning to end. Many converts were made from the Third party.

Many converts were made from the Third party.

There was a tremendous barbecue-table, 200 yards long, and the people were all feasted. Great enthusiasm prevailed, and sound Dunocracy was preached for five hours and listened to attentively.

Hon. L. C. Latham also addressed the Democratic club of Kinston last night, and was listened to by a large and appreciative audionee.

this morning by running past the jailer when he went into the cell to carry them water. The jailer and night policeman succeeded in driving all of them back to the cell except one—a negro boy—charged with forgery, who has so far made his escape. Mr. George Gray shot at him, and he thinks that he is wounded in one of his less.
